CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
On Poetry	1
On the Bond of Union among Christians,	2
Letters from M. Winans on the Deacons office, &c.	4, 96
Community of Goods—The Fellowship of the Apos-
" tles—Jewish and Gentile Deacons—Mo-
" dern Deacons,	5
Letters to Mr. A. Campbell,	10, 231, 312
A. Fragment,	20
Objections Considered,	23
Haldane on the Epistle to the Romans,	27
Queries and reply,	33
Dr. Beattie's opinion of the Christian Religion,	35
Ancient and Modern Bishops,	35
Constantine's way of reconciling Bishops,	36
Character given to Wickliff by an enemy,	36
Metaphysics;	36
History of Priestcraft,	37, 73, 109, 145
The Veil; Sleeping Saints; Resurrection of the First
" Fruits,	43
On Anabaptism,	46
Truth vs Human Tradition,	53
Elder Henley's 'Defence,'	58
Presbyterian zeal against Popery,	63
Mekara and Kincaid or the Pagan and the Missionary,	67
Differences between Sectarianism and Christianity,	69
Infallibility,	71, 286
Schism,	82
Traditions of the Ancients concerning the Soul,	84
Strictures on Campbellism, by W. Jones,	90, 118, 153
Egypt,	104, 394
Popery in England,	106
The Earthquake in Syria,	107
Apostolical Fathers,	143
The Church of Christ,	124, 165, 192, 170, 303
The Miller and the Holy Office,	131
'Materialism Campbellism,'	133
Protestantism,	139
Debate,	142
A Few Strictures on Mr. Jones' Strictures,	159
Hunnicut's Report	172
Psalms,	180, 247, 266, 323
Christianity the Religion of Civilized Man,	182
An Experience,	199
The Gospel in Buckingham,	202
Remarks on Hunnicut's Report Concluded,	205
Correspondence,	207, 242, 276

Remarks on Prophecy, ... 217
Illustrations of the Apocalypse, . 218, 254, 288, 359
'Materialism and Anti-Materialism,' . . . 224
Notes by the Editor, ... 227
Jesus and the Sadducees' 229
The Christian and his Persecutors, . . . 251
Immortality of the Soul, ... 252
The Many against the Few, ... 265
Difference between Earthly and Heavenly Love, . 267
Latest News from Bethany, ... 280
Burke on Reformation, ... 285
Dr. Watt's Testimony 285
Milton on Christian Doctrine, ... 286
The Church at Paineville and the Harbinger, . 299
The Paineville Address, ... 300
'Dr. Thomas' Second Letter,' 311
The Earth as it was, a Type of the World as it is, . 321
Anecdote 322
Christian Worship and its Order, ... 324
Messrs Campbell, Hunnicut, Watt, Flippo, and Others, 330
Dr. Thomas' Speech, ... 332
My Infidelity, ... 342
Letters from Messrs Henley and Duval, . . . 342
Reply, ... 344
Things Contended for, ... 350
Testimony in vindication of the Editor, . . 354, 368
Address of the Fork Church, ... 355
Certificate of Col. Richardson, ... 358
Dr. Thomas not a Schismatic Mr. Campbell being Judge, . 359
Address of the Jetersville Church, ... 373
A few Reflexions, ... 380
Letters from A. Anderson, ... 383, 419
Winans on 'the Salvation of Infants,' 384, 418
'Revd.' J. S. Watt's Veracity, ... 387
The arraignment of the Editor before the Tribunal of the World
" instead of the Church by Messrs Glenn, Bragg, and
" Carter of Richmond, ... 388
My Defence, ... 389
Address from Oak Grove Church, ... 398
Extract from a letter to Mr. Wallis in England, . . 400
Rules for reading the Scriptures, their design, and Excellency, . 401
An Unanswerable Argument, ... 404
Letter from Parmenas, ... 406
Letters from D. Wiets and others, ... 411
Remarks on 'Peace' in a letter from the Editor to a Correspondent, 415
Letter from Tennessee, ... 420
"It is fallen! It is fallen! Even Babylon the Great!" . . 422